Sequence of learning	Objectives and suggested details provided by subject leader.
1	i). To learn about the artist Piet Mondrian and how he reduced his artistic vocabulary to simple geometric elements and a few elementary colours. He used these as symbols of the expression of cosmic order. To do so, he removed all textures, curves, or diagonal lines and all formal figures. He created a purified art style. In fact, he even reduced his own name from Pieter Cornelius Mondrian to Mondrian.
2	i). To evaluate a number of paintings/collages in the style of Piet Mondrian. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• See possible resources in Y1/2 folder.</li> </ul>
3	i). Experiment with some pre-cut geometric shapes coloured red, yellow blue and black <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Children can move the shapes until they are happy with them and then stick them down, remembering to leave room for the different thicknesses of black lines between their shapes.</li> </ul>
4	i). To develop their paper collage using a range of materials which are red, blue, yellow, white and black. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Children use a range of materials, to create a collage 'in the style of' Mondrian. This time, children to cut out, decide on the sizes, type of material etc to build a truly original piece of work in the style of Mondrian.</li> </ul>
5	i). To evaluate their art work in terms of the effectiveness of the choice of colour – primary, how successful their choice of material has been and the accuracy of their geometric shapes.

Learning Outcome/product

The end of this series of lessons will be a collage inspired by the work of Piet Mondrian. Children should have complete choice of geometric shapes, choice of material, sizes and colours within the style of Mondrian.
